MEXICO WAS STUDY OF CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE

Studying Mexico from first hand information, the Magic City Chautauqua Circle spent a pleasant time Friday evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Pfelehardt, with Miss Elizabeth Elliott as hostess. The discussion of the evening centered around the Mexican as a citizen, and many hopes were expressed that more schools would be established in that country. At the close of the discussion a musical program was given and a dainty lunch was served. The dining table presented an attractive appearance with touches of holly and evergreen and a miniature Christmas tree that carried the holiday spirit to all. A mystery package was in front of each plate and as these were opened the riddles were read and the gifts bestowed. The Circle had an honor guest Mrs. McNaughton, whose years in study have been a real inspiration for all present-day students.

CHARLEROI BOYS ARE GOING TO HAVE NEW CLOTHES FOR XMAS

Suits - - $6.50 to $18
O'coats - $7.50 to $14

It's like bounding Texas to describe the new boys suits and overcoats that we purposely bought and promptly received for the holidays.

The cuts—the designs—the patterns cover too much territory to be told about in a paragraph—so we won't even try.

Here's what we want to impress on every person who has a boy to remember this Christmas.

If you give your little friend a suit or overcoat you will be giving him the finest gift possible to give—one that will be doing duty when the toys have been discarded—and if you buy it from this store you will receive as big a dollar for dollar value as it is possible to buy ANYWHERE.

Boys Waists—Boys Neckwear—Boys Underwear
All make nice presents.

FOLLOW THE CROWDS TO TOYLAND

TOYLAND is crowded every day with eager shoppers and it really looks like a good old fashioned Christmas. The ingenuity and capacity of the Toy makers has been taxed to the limit to satisfy juvenile America.
Here are to be found representatives of almost everything in Toyland from Horses to Dogs—Dollies short and Dollies tall—Guns that shoot—Clowns and everything imported right from the home of the children's good friend—"SANTA CLAUS". Don't fail to bring the Children to visit Toyland.
